Olive Oil artisans since 1989

Jaén, olive oil landmark

Our olive mill its a familiar business founded on 1989, when Manolo Rus and José Jimenez decided to embark on this fascinating olive oils world, acquiring a small factory in Begíjar (Jaén)

Today, Oleicola San Francisco has a modern facilities and an exemplary production system in the sector. The prestigious olive oil guide Flos Olei 2015 awarded us with the "Emerging Olive Mill" prize, with any doubt a great recognition to our work.

Oleicola San Francisco, with our Olive Mill 3.0 project is focused on new commercialization ways using for this all the potential of the new technologies, personalizing the relation with all our customers and knowing by firsthand all their needs, opinions and inquietudes. With presence on all the main social networks, online chat on our corporative webs, international shipments with no minimum quantity, we want to be as close as possible to them. In Oleicola San Francisco we want to treat you as you deserve, personally.

Our extra virgin olive oils quality, awarded in many national and international contests, and a simple but complete catalogue with newfangled products has placed us between the most prominent sector's Olive Mills.

We can not forget that, today, Oleicola San Francisco is a reference in Oleotourism at an international scale, with thousands of visitors from all around the world that now are part of the Oleicola San Francisco's big family
